Is there something that you thought we did particularly well, and if so, what?

Negotiating extras into our house such as outdoor fireplace and summer kitchen! She also made sure our lending agent was present for our closing to assist in closing details!

We had a wonderful home-buying experience with Monica Nurchuck. She was prompt in her replies to my messages and emails. When it came time to negotiate she was able to negotiate in to our contract more than we ever expected to get for our money. She was dependable and knowledgeable in regards to our final walk-thru and closing procedures! I have already recommended her to acquaintances of ours in the market for a new house. I really can't say enough wonderful things about Monica! She was the best realtor I have ever worked with!
